Congress Begins Effort to Settle The Coal Strike

Representative Operators Will Be Invited to Confer With Union Leaders

Meet April 10th

Possible Divergence Between Views of Congress and Administration Is Seen

Washington, April 4. — A congressional effort at settlement of the coal strike, particularly as it involves the bituminous fields, was begun today when Chairman Nolan, of the house labor committee, was authorized to telegraph invitations to a number of representative operators and officers of operators' associations in the central competitive coal fields to attend a meeting with the miners' union leaders in Washington April 10 and attempt to reach an agreement.

At the same time, Senator Borah, Republican of Idaho, took occasion to say in the senate that "drastic public action" might be demanded and to charge the operators with contract breaking in precipitating the strike.

A possible divergence between the views of members of congress and those of the administration was seen, however, when Attorney General Daugherty issued a statement reiterating that "the government is not undertaking to do anything in the present situation of the coal matter," declaring that men "have a right to quit work and men have a right to employ other men," that the public was not concerned with coal shortages and that it was the duty of local authorities to maintain order.

The government would not look with favor upon coal price increases. Mr. Daugherty said, adding that he saw "no reason at this time to believe that disorder need be feared," and that the government will perform whatever may be its duty in the premises if local and state agencies cannot maintain peace.

Lewis Approves Proposal.
The house committee action came after its members had spent two days listening to discussion of the strike from miners' viewpoint by John L. Lewis, president of the Mine Workers. Mr. Lewis assured the committee he would advise his associates to negotiate with any representative group of operators from the central competitive field, which includes Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, even though not all the operators could be induced to deal again with the union.

The union, he insisted, would not and could not settle the disputes in other states until the basis had been established for a national wage level. The committee decided to appeal direct to the representatives of the operators' groups in the states named and Mr. Lewis tonight declared it had put forward a "proposition worth consideration."

However, I have no notion what the operators will do," he said.

Miners' demands for a six hour day and five day week—issues involved in the strike—were described by Mr. Lewis as largely a move to force regularity of employment.

Lewis and Black Have Tilt.
"Men employed in the day" he said, "would receive the same wages they and now getting and put in less time, but the miners who die could not be paid as they are now for the number of tons of coal they produce."

Representative Black, Democrat, Texas, calculated that if the five day, six hour demand was granted "the public would pay $24,000,000 of coal they are now getting each year."

"Who will that come out of?" Mr. Black demanded, after figuring up his total.

"Nobody," Mr. Lewis retorted, "because your figures are absurd. I can't follow your mental gyrations on this subject."

subject in the fields of mathematics." Mr. Black pressed his calculations. "Congressmen, when the 10 hour day was changed to the 10 hour day," Mr. Lewis interrupted, "the efficiency was increased and the production per man per day increased. The same effect continued when the 10 hour day was cut to eight hours. The efficiency increased more than sufficient to make up the loss. The fact has been authoritatively determined and universally recognized."

"I can't figure out how you can expect the production to increase," Mr. Black said, "after you have reduced the hours of work down below a reasonable basis."

Mr. Black pointed out that we are willing to discuss all these demands around a council table with operators. Mr. Lewis returned, "and then if we cannot show them to be reasonable we won't expect to press them."

UNION TAKES STEPS TO RIGIDLY ENFORCE STRIKE

New York, April 4. — Steps toward rigid enforcement of the anthracite strike order were taken by union officials here today when John J. Mates, international board member of the United Mine Workers, ordered miners, members of the semi-organized Lykens briquet mine at Wiconisco, Pa., to immediately leave their posts.

According to Mr. Mates, the Lykens mine has a capacity of approximately 125,000 tons of anthracite briquets. It employs 1,150 men, he said, and is the largest plant of its kind in the industry.

The international official's action today was taken after a conference with members of the anthracite general policy sub-committee who are arranging to consider progress of the miners' and operators' subcommittee on wage contract negotiations. Enforcement of the strike order in other subsidiary coal industries where anthracite miners are employed will be demanded as soon as authentic reports of the extent of the walk-out reach here, it is said.

Miner Prospects of Settlement
After three weeks of negotiations, members of the wage contract sub-committee tonight asserted the prospects of an early settlement of the anthracite strike were dimmer than they were with any other industry.

"Strike benefits won't be necessary for some time yet, except in sections where the miners have been out of for long periods prior to the strike. In the anthracite district, we don't expect to begin paying benefits for at least six weeks," Haynes said.

The anthracite miners were "well prepared for the temporary suspension," he said.

Miners Reported Leaving U. S.
Presidents of anthracite districts 1, 7 and 9, with headquarters at Scranton, Hazleton and Shamokin, respectively, today reported that union miners were leaving the country by hundreds and departing for foreign lands.

This was especially true among the Russians and Czech-Slovaks, they said. President Thomas Kennedy of No. 7 asserted a single special train had brought 700 of the miners to New York, most of them enroute to Cuba, Cuba, and other foreign lands.

C. J. Golden reported the exodus of large numbers from their districts.

Many of the skilled miners are being attracted to Russia by agents of William Haywood, who plans to operate a huge coal concession under the Soviet," said Mr. Golden.

Haywood's scouts have been circulating in the anthracite regions for several weeks, recruiting only the most highly skilled workmen. We understand he wants 7,000 of them.

Although he declared the majority of foreign-born miners leaving the United States said they only intended to "take a vacation until the strike is settled," Mr. Golden asserted a large percentage intended to remain in Europe.

AIR PATROL MAY BE NEXT

Only Way to Stop Rum Running
From Canada Into U. S.,
Agents Declare

HAYNES TAKES STEP

Announces Speedy Motor Launches
Will Patrol Niagara River
for Bootleggers

New York, April 4.—An airplane patrol to check bootleggers who ply between New York and Canada in speedy motor cars will be the government's next move against rum runners, Al Thomas and Charles LeCarron, prohibition enforcement agents, predicted today upon their return from a ten day investigation along the Canadian border. They declared there seemed no other way to stop the traffic which is assuming larger and larger proportions.

One farmer told them, they said, it was not unusual for fifty to sixty automobiles to whiz by his house in a single night, some traveling as fast as 75 miles an hour. And they pointed out, the road on which he lives is but one of a score of highways leading from Canada into New York state. So profitable is the business, they said, that bootleggers found they could afford to pay the farmers fancy prices to keep the roads clear of snow during the winter. One farmer told them he had received $500 for helping get the rum runners through.

Valleyfield Is Bootleggers Paradise.
"Conditions at Rouses Point and Malone are worse than at any other point along the border," the agents said.

"Valleyfield, a small town 15 miles north of Malone, is now hailed as the bootleggers' paradise because of the activities carried on there."

At Buffalo, the agents said, thousands of gallons of liquor are being smuggled in at night by motor launches, with cooperation of Buffalo residents, who are liberally paid.

They told of plans reached at a conference yesterday with Commissioner Haynes and State Prohibition Director Day to put a squad of swift motor launches and another of speedy automobiles into service on the border to be operated by a detail of fifty agents to be stationed at Buffalo.

But, they predicted, the smuggling will not be broken up until airplanes, too, are brought into play.

Haynes Announces Plan.
Washington, April 4.—Swift motorboats will patrol the Niagara river above and below the falls, as well as the waters of Lake Champlain, in a war on Canadian rum smugglers, Prohibition Commissioner Haynes announced today upon his return from Buffalo, where a comprehensive campaign was planned.

Plans for stopping the flow of illicit liquor into this country from Canada, Mr. Haynes said, were worked out in Buffalo in conference with Federal Prohibition Director Day of New York, officials of the customs and immigration services, and the district attorney's office.

Rum smuggling across the Canadian border, he explained, despite the cooperation of Canadian officials, presents a peculiar problem because of the Canadian law permitting liquor exports, while the American law forbids alcoholic imports. However, he declared it was believed that a fleet of fast motorboats would keep the waters clear of liquor runners.

JAPANESE POLICY ATTACKED.
(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, April 4.—The declaration that the clash yesterday between Japanese and China forces in the vicinity of Vladivostok was the outcome of a deliberate policy of Japan, which presages an advance in Siberia, was made today in a formal statement issued by the special trade delegation of the Far Eastern Republic to the United States.

NAMED WORK ASSISTANT.
Washington, April 4.—Paul Henderson of Illinois was nominated today by President Harding to be second assistant postmaster general.

WALL STREET IS ARMING ITSELF AGAINST BANDITS

New York, April 4. — Wall street is arming itself against bandits. During the last few months, between 10,000 and 12,000 bankers, brokers and others who handle money in the financial district, have taken out permits for employees to carry revolvers, according to police department records.

HOUSE IS RULED BY ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE, CHARGE

Rep. Tinkham Demands Investigation of Alleged Failure of League to Report Campaign Expenditures

Washington, April 4.—Demand for investigation by the department of justice of charges that the Anti-Saloon League of America had failed to report campaign expenditures as required under the corrupt practices act was made in the house today by Representative Tinkham, Republican of Massachusetts.

Making the charges himself, Mr. Tinkham declared it would be "absolutely futile" to expect an investigation by congress because of the "complete control of the house by the Anti-Saloon League and its abject obedience to the dictates of the league."

Mr. Tinkham charged specifically that the league had violated the corrupt practices act by not making returns from 1910, the year of the law's enactment, until 1920; by not giving the names and addresses of all persons receiving $10 or more in the returns filed by Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the league, "under protest" in 1920, by the non-reporting under the act of branches of the league in West Virginia, Maryland, Colorado, Oregon and Iowa.

"Complete failure" also was charged by the Massachusetts house member, "to file returns with the clerk of the house of numerous other state branches of the league which receive disbursed money in connection with the congressional election in 1920, notably the states of New York, Pennsylvania and Minnesota."

"The records of the clerk of the house disclose a failure of the league and its subsidiaries to obey federal statutes," Mr. Tinkham declared.

"Not only in one case, but in many," the Massachusetts member said he desired to "draw attention" to a letter recently issued by Parker Shields, superintendent of the Tennessee Anti-Saloon League, asking for contributions, which, he said, contains this statement:

"A number of congressmen who hold the balance of power and pile up majorities in congress come from the southern and western states, where money for organization and education, all purposes is secured. They always have to have help from the national league."

"This would clearly show," the Massachusetts representative declared, "that the Anti-Saloon League is systematically and liberally financing congressional campaigns and placing congressmen in the line to vote in congress in accordance with its dictation."

MISCHIEVOUS BOYS ALMOST WRECK WOLVERINE EXPRESS

Yonkers, April 4. — Mischievous boys playing near the New York Central tracks in Ludlow almost wrecked the Wolverine Express from the west today by obstructing the tracks with heavy planks and galvanized pipes.

A possible serious accident was averted by the engineer, William Otis, who saw the danger in time and clamped on the emergency brakes.

DRIFTING MINE SIGHTED.

Washington, April 4. — A drifting mine was sighted yesterday directly in the pathway chartered for liners plying between Boston and Europe. Warning of its presence immediately was sent broadcast by radio by the hydrographic office of the navy department to all mariners.

OIL MAN SLAYS ARMY OFFICER

Party in Fashionable Oklahoma City Home Results in Death of Colonel Paul W. Beck

DAY ADMITS ATTACK

Says He Struck Beck With Revolver
But When Latter Struggled
With Mrs. Day

Oklahoma City, April 4.—A midnight party in the fashionable home here of Jean P. Day, prominent attorney and oil man, ended early today in the death of Lieutenant Colonel Paul W. Beck, assistant commandant of Post Field at Fort Sill, Okla., and widely known in army circles.

Beck, one of the pioneer officers of the American army, was killed by Day, who declared he struck the army officer over the head with a revolver, when he returned home and found his guest struggling with Mrs. Day. The gun was discharged accidentally, Day asserted. Beck's skull was so badly torn that officials said they were unable to determine whether the bullet or the blow caused death. Day is under $5,000 bonds to appear at a coroner's inquest Saturday.

A committee of officers from Post Field will conduct an inquiry, it was announced tonight by Forrest Hughes, county attorney. He said he would not consider filing charges until after the coroner's inquest.

M. F. Meadows, federal prohibition director for Oklahoma, also announced he would investigate to determine what part, if any, liquor may have played in the tragedy.

The shooting followed a party at the Day home, in which Lieutenant Colonel Beck was guest of honor.

Beck had been here yesterday from Fort Sill. Day had taken the other guests home in his motor car and when he returned to his home about 2:30 a. m., he declared in a statement to newspapermen, he noticed through a window that his wife and Beck were seated on a divan.

"Colonel Beck reached for her," Day declared. "There was a struggle." Thereupon, Day said, he rushed into the house and into an upstairs room where he got his revolver. Returning to the dining room, he related, "I commanded, 'You get out of here.' Then the army officer drew back his arm as if to strike. I hit him over the head, then the gun went off. I never dreamed of his discharging."

Tonight Day amplified his earlier statement and recounted details of the tragedy.

"Could any red-blooded American do such a thing? I thought he was violating, his home invaded, and his faithful wife insulted and violently attacked?" he demanded.

Calmly Relates Details.
Clad in house coat and slippers, with a cigarette in his mouth, Day sat on the front porch of his home and calmly related the details.

"So help me God, I never meant to kill Beck," he declared. "I loved Beck like a brother. He had my complete confidence. He was at liberty to come in and out of my home as he pleased. He was at liberty to come in and out of my home as he pleased. He was at liberty to come in and out of my home as he pleased."

"It was midnight or after when we left Beck's home," Day said. "I suggested that they all come over to my house and dance, and we came. It must have been after 1:30 o'clock when the Prichards started for home. The Andersons had no car, so I offered to drive them home."

"Mrs. Day was tired and did not accompany me," Beck said. "I was to entertain Mrs. Day. I may have been gone for half an hour. When I stopped my car on the driveway I heard a commanding voice coming from somewhere. The blinds in front were all up. I came up the side steps and saw Beck struggling with the purest, dearest woman in the world. He was attempting to assault her and as I hurried to the door I could hear her begging and pleading and trying to shame him."

"I do things methodically. When I saw what was going on, I decided to drive him out of the house."

How Beck Met Death.
"Just before I turned the knob, it occurred to me that army officers often go armed and that I had better get my gun."

"Beck jumped up from the couch as quickly as a cat. I came to the door and went toward the dining room. When I got my revolver and came downstairs I paused on the landing looking into the living room but Beck was not to be seen. Then I turned around and went down a short flight of steps to the kitchen. I thought I would find him if I made the circuit."

"It occurred to me that Beck had left the house as I started through the kitchen. I passed into the breakfast nook and looking through into the dining room I saw the portieres bulging together. I walked in and Beck stepped out boldly. He looked me in

DISMISSAL ORDERS CAUSE HULLABALOO

Democrats Storm Over President's Act; Men's Character Not Attacked, Harding Declares

Washington, April 4.—President Harding's dismissal of 29 bureau of engraving executives was the center of another storm of Democratic protest in congress today despite a White House explanation that the president had not intended by his action to reflect on the character of any of the discharged officials.

In the senate, a congressional inquiry was proposed formally in a resolution by Senator Caraway, Democrat of Arkansas, who declared the president's unilateral dismissal order had been "inhuman and inexcusable." Several other Democratic senators joined in the attack, while in the house, Representative Byrnes, Democrat of Tennessee, assailed the president's act as "nothing short of an outrage."

Taking the lead in the defense of the administration, Senator New, Republican of Indiana, told the senate they were "ample reasons" for the dismissal, although unfortunately there were times when the president could not take the country into his confidence. A general debate involving the whole patronage policy of the administration developed over Senator Caraway's resolution, but it went over without action.

At the White House, Secretary Christian, acting for the president, declared in a letter to one of the dismissed officials that a full explanation was not yet opportune, although the chief executive regretted that "insinuating publicity" was being given the incident. There had been no desire, the secretary wrote, to reflect on the character of any government employee.

It also was said by White House officials that M. Harding felt he alone was responsible for the conduct of an efficient administration and that he proposed to exercise the presidential appointive power in a manner that accorded with his own judgment. There was no possibility, it was declared, that any of the dismissed officials would be restored to office.

N. Y. C. FIREMAN SUES STATE FOR $25,000

Was Shot Through Leg by National
Guardman on Duty on Bridge
Entering Albany

Albany, April 4.—The state court of claims today concluded the hearing of testimony in the case of John Neillger, a fireman for the New York Central railroad, who has presented a claim for $25,000 against the state for injuries suffered May 9, 1918, when he was shot through the leg by a national guardman on duty on a railroad bridge entering Albany.

George Maney, the guardman, testified he fired when Neillger failed to stop when ordered to halt, and then reached toward his hip pocket, as the soldier thought for a revolver.

Neillger testified that he reached for his pocket for his pass. Dr. Arthur Stein testified for the claimant that his left leg is an inch and a half shorter than his right as a result of the shooting. Decision was reserved.

URGES ENACTMENT OF SHIP SUBSIDY WITHOUT CHANGES

Washington, April 4. — Enactment of the administration ship subsidy bills without radical change is the hope of President Harding and shipping board officials, Chairman Lester, members of the senate commerce and house merchant marine committees at the opening session today of a joint hearing on the measures.

Declaring that the shipping board "stands fast" for the general principles embodied in the program endorsed by the president, Mr. Lester expressed the opinion that "any radical change in the proposals might result in the destruction of the whole."

JOHNNY DUNDEE WINS CLOSE DECISION IN TORONTO BOUT

Toronto, Ont., April 4. —Johnny Dundee of New York, junior lightweight champion, won a close decision in a ten-round bout here tonight from Jimmy Goodrich of Buffalo, the judges disagreeing and the referee declaring in favor of the New York boxer.

The match was intended to be a championship affair but Goodrich was one pound overweight and the title was not at stake.

the eye. I was just four feet from him."

"I said, 'Now, you get out of my house, you cur.'"

"His right hand was clinched and he had hold of his Sam Browne belt. He pulled that arm back. It may have been for a blow. I thought he might be armed. I did not know. I jumped in and brought my gun down on his head with great force. The impact discharged the weapon. That is the truth."

The bullet had not been found to night. "From the appearance of the wound, the bullet did not lodge in the skull or brain, I put passed out and struck somewhere in the woodwork of the house," said Coroner A. W. McWilliams.

"When I arrived, there were sliced oranges and bottles around the room. Mrs. Day was frantic and sobbing could be drawn from her as to the advances Beck is alleged to have made."

SHOPMEN MAY QUIT WORK TO UPHOLD RULES

Railroad Practice of "Farming
Out" Work to Private Concerns
Condemned by Convention

REA DEFENDS POLICY

Pennsylvania President Declares
Action Was Due to Existing Emergencies

Buffalo, April 4. — "Grave possibility" exists that railroad shopmen throughout the country will be forced to strike to maintain their stand against the practice of "farming out" shop work to private companies, according to a statement issued tonight by delegates of Division No. 2 of the railway employees' union in session here.

The session condemned the Pennsylvania, New York Central and Erie railroads for alleged evasion and abrogation of rules, conditions and wage schedules established by the federal Railroad Labor board.

"It has become necessary," the statement said, "for the convention to consider seriously the possibilities and the course of action that will make these law-breaking railroads conform to the requirements of agreements and rulings of the Labor board and the transportation act of 1920."

In view of the injustices referred to and the program to be adopted by this convention for action, and also in view of the gigantic coal strike now on in this section, it becomes a grave possibility that similar action may be the result of this convention and also that of the railway employees' department convention which will be convened in Chicago, the adjournment of this convention of Division No. 2."

Defends Pennsylvania's Policy.

Philadelphia, April 4. — President Samuel Rea of the Pennsylvania railroad system in a statement today on the conclusion of the interstate commerce commission, that it cost the company approximately $3,000,000 more to have repairs made to equipment by outside concerns than in its own shops, said he regarded "the decision of the commission as an unjust and unfair reflection on the management of the company."

"I would have regarded it as humiliating, except for the strong dissent of five members of the commission, which fully sustains the action of the company in the exercise of its duty at a most trying period," said Mr. Rea.

The company, Mr. Rea, added, "exhausted what it believed to be an honest and sound judgment at a time when the railroads were crowded with traffic, threatened with what ultimately resulted in the 'outlaw strike' and having large numbers of locomotives and cars that had not been properly and promptly repaired by the federal railroad administration. The duty devolved on all roads to secure the repairs as quickly as possible."

"The fact that it cost more and took longer than was expected, is now a matter of hindsight, but I may say after most considerate review that the same action would be taken if we were confronted by the same emergencies."

NEGRO FEUD SCARES HOSPITAL PATIENTS

Chef Killed and Worker Wounded
When Fight Breaks Out
Among Kitchen Help

New York, April 4. — Ward patients in Lincoln hospital were frightened today when a feud broke out among West Indian negroes employed in the hospital kitchen.

The fight, which started with cleavers and butcher knives, ended with two pistol shots which killed James Dorsett, hospital chef, and seriously wounded John Chippendale, a kitchen man.

Charles Brunson, cook, was arrested on a charge of murder. He told the police he had had several arguments with Dorsett and Chippendale, who were West Indians. Today, he declared, the argument broke out, and he fired when Chippendale started toward a table on which cleavers and knives were lying.

WELFARE BILL APPROVED
 Governor Miller Signs Davenport Maternity Bill Designed to Safeguard Motherhood and Child Life.

Albany, April 4.—Governor Miller yesterday signed the Davenport bill designed to create a division of maternity, infancy and child hygiene in the State Health Department for the purpose of safeguarding motherhood, the saving of infant life and the prevention of diseases and defects of childhood.

The Davenport bill was passed by the Legislature, which thus rejected provisions of the Sheppard-Towner federal act, providing Federal aid to states for the same purpose.

Among the duties of the new division of the health department under provisions of the Davenport law will be public instruction by means of motion pictures and lectures regarding preventable conditions affecting infant and maternity deaths.

The Davenport bill carries an appropriation of $130,000 for the new division, and the supplemental appropriation bill also carries an appropriation of $30,000 available for the work.

GREAT ACTIVITY AT EXPENSE OF VALUES

Yesterday's Business on Exchange on Largest Scale of Any Session Since Dec. 20, 1920

New York, April 4.—Business on the stock exchange today was on the largest, if not the most comprehensive scale of any session since December 29, 1920, total sales amounting to 1,275,000 shares.

The greater part of this activity was at the expense of quoted values, however, a number of favorites in the industrial and miscellaneous groups reacting one to three points, while a few specialties displayed greater heaviness.

In the earlier movement, however, when price tendencies among the leaders were again upward, between 30 and 10 issues, including United States Steel, Studebaker and some of the oils, were at new high records for a year or more.

Much of the afternoon's demand was ascribed to pools, but the continued activity of commission or "wire" houses gave color to the belief that profit-taking was assuming greater proportions.

One of the day's chief features was the reaction of 4 1/2 points by Studebaker, the outstanding issue. Studebaker made partial recovery, closing at a loss of 2 1/4 points.

A majority of steels, equipments, rubbers and oils finished at losses of fractions to one and one-half points, but shippings, sugars and chemicals, notably Division, were firm to strong. It was apathetic throughout, many of the investment divisions holding within fractional bounds.

Neither money market nor foreign exchange figures to extent in the day's operations.

New high records for Liberty issues featured another broad and active bond market today. The entire group of United States war floatations closed at substantial gains. Dealings in the 4's were of enormous volume, especially the seconds and four ths.

Buying of domestic rails again embraced favorites of the western and southern groups, Missouri, Kansas & Texas and Seaboard Air Line being especially conspicuous and strong.

"Thrifty"—Just Describes the Scientific Sterling

A housewife writes of the Scientific Sterling as a "thrifty" range. She has found out that, whether using coal or gas, it is a great fuel saver, that no batches of food spoiled by uneven cooking ever come out of that oven; that the polished top and simplicity of construction make cleaning a matter of a moment. "It is an honest range," she says.

It is an honest range, worth every dollar you put into it. It is a time and money-saver. That is why every housekeeper who has not perfect cooking service in her home should immediately install a Scientific Sterling in her kitchen. Begin fuel and time-saving at once—insure your cooking results now. Get a range that will pay for itself.

We shall be glad to demonstrate the many exclusive advantages of the Scientific Sterling and explain to you the modern saving plan by means of which a small payment will put in your kitchen the

MARRIED AT OTEGO

Miss Helena Northrup becomes bride of Paul M. Myers.

Otsego, April 4.—At the home of Ora and R. D. Northrup on Saturday afternoon, occurred the marriage of their niece, Miss Helena May Northrup to Paul Mattice Myers. The bride's pastor, Rev. Charles C. Volz, performed the ceremony. They were attended by Miss Mabel L. Archer as bridesmaid and Daniel W. Hungerford as best man.

The bride is the daughter of Hiram Northrup of Otsego, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Myers of Gilboa.

They departed for a two weeks' tour in Gilboa and vicinity, after which they will reside in Otsego. Congratulations and best wishes go with them for a happy married life.

Evangelistic Services End.

The evangelistic services held in the Methodist church by Rev. E. O. Van Horn came to a successful close on Sunday evening when the audience taxed the seating capacity of the church. Mr. Van Horn preached an able sermon on "The Saddest Words of the Savior, Ye will not Come unto me that ye may have Life." A male chorus of six voices from Oneonta rendered several special numbers in a manner which elicited much praise. One very important feature of this series of services is the addition of 35 new members to the Storehouse Tithers' association.

Community Chautauqua.

The dates for the Community Chautauqua have been received. They are July 30 to August 2. A brief summary of some of the features follows:

To Attend Conference.

Rev. Charles C. Volz left Tuesday for Endicott to attend the Wyoming Annual conference. Mr. Volz is the conference statistical secretary.

Meetings This Week.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Aid society, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the church to make Rainy Day Bags.

All of our people who sang in the choir during evangelistic meetings are requested to meet at the parsonage on Thursday evening at 7:30 to practice Easter music.

MILFORD CENTER NEWS

Neighbors' Night to be Observed With Appropriate Program.

Milford Center, April 4.—Neighbors' Night will be held at the church on Friday evening. A playlet, entitled, "Morning Callers," will be one of the special features. Mrs. Milo D. Acker, representing the State Board of Health, will address the meeting at 7:30. A supper from six o'clock until all are served. Everyone will be welcome. Everything free except the supper, which will cost only 25 cents.

Items of Interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorris Edson have moved to their home here, after spending the winter near Edison Corners. Fred Peck, who underwent a very serious operation March 23 at the Parshall hospital at Oneonta is reported to be slowly recovering. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bunday spent Sunday afternoon in Morris. Mrs. Belle Preston and Preston Wilbur were guests Sunday of Mrs. R. J. Shepard, of Colliers. Mr. and Mrs. Asa Bailey and four children have been in the past week with grip. Mrs. G. B. Utter and Miss Gertrude Cox of Colliers spent Sunday at G. B. Utter's. Mr. and Mrs. Clark W. Morris are entertaining the grip for a few days.

ATTORNEYS FROM SCHENEVEUS

One Family With Four Lawyers, All Successful in Profession.

Schenevus, April 4.—The family of C. T. Smith of Race street has a decided leaning toward the legal profession, as shown by the fact that four members, all brothers, have been admitted to the bar and are now successful practicing attorneys. They are: Elmer C. Smith of Sharon Springs, Francis L. Smith of Cobleskill and Claude V. and Paul J. Smith of Oneonta.

Prize Speaking Contest.

The annual prize speaking contest of the Schenevus High school will be held at the Chase and Bennett hall Friday evening of this week.

As a result of the preliminary trials held earlier in the year the following students will participate: Boys—James Craig, John Chase, Richard Chase and Clinton Woolsey. Girls—Louise Nellis, Hilda Smith, Mary Campbell and Ruby Ritchey.

All of the contestants have been drilling faithfully and with a high degree of earnestness which indicates that this contest will equal, if not surpass that of any previous year.

In Honor of Mrs. J. Warren Teed.

Mrs. J. Warren Teed of Albany is spending several days in own visiting friends and relatives. An enjoyable gathering of about twenty ladies was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Tyler M. Chase in honor of Mrs. Teed. Vocal and instrumental music as well as various games completed an evening's enjoyment. The entire party repaired to Wickham's restaurant where a Dutch supper was served.

Reviews.

Oakley Palmer returned home after spending the winter with his aunt, Mrs. Lena Davis at Hartwick. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Markley spent Thursday and Friday in Schenectady visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Grace Martello. Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Fancher have moved from Oneonta to their home on South Side. Mrs. Joe Testa was called to Cooperstown Sunday by the serious illness of a friend. Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Palmater spent Friday in Cooperstown. Mrs. W. H. Graney is confined to her bed with grip. A. W. Ross, the D. & M. operator at Schoharie Junction, has been transferred to the tower at this place.

WELLS BRIDGE THIS WEEK

Wells Bridge, April 4.—A good sized crowd attended the pound social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bidwell last Friday evening, and $12.50 was cleared for the society. On Friday evening, April 7, a warm sugar social will be held in Sisson's hall by the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church. Everyone is welcome. Supper from 6 until all are served. Several Wells Bridge people attended the High school play (Mr. Bob) at Unadilla Saturday evening. Miss Agnes Fleming of Albany spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Hattie Fleming.

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

John D. Clarke.

I want to be re-nominated and re-elected Congressman from the Thirty-fourth Congressional District (Delaware, Otsego, Chenango and Broome Counties).

Reasons, why I believe I am entitled to re-nomination and re-election:—

1. I have been "on the job" practically all the time, therefore I have kept my promise to devote myself exclusively to the job of being your Congressman.

2. I have kept my promise to represent, as best I could, and interpret, the progressive, forward-looking sentiment of our district, both as regards our local interests and in a National way, and I have allowed no intrusion of self, selfish, or class interest, to interfere with my final decision.

3. No constituent has had to WAIT for a personal reply to a letter or to obtain my personal effort (if I believed his cause just), in appearing before the departmental heads in his or her behalf.

4. The soldiers, widows or dependents of all the wars, have had the "right of way" in every instance. I have telegraphed, telephoned, and "tatted" to various offices in order to "speed up" their cases, and I have given the "defenders of this Nation" the deserved preference, everything else being equal, in recommendation for appointments.

5. I have visited, studied, and know my district, its industries and its people; and I have tried to keep in touch with all our activities all the time so as to be able to appear before the Congress and committees and place before them our viewpoint.

Future—I believe in the enforcement of all laws, and point to my vote on every measure as a prophecy of my attitude in the future.

As in my previous campaign, I now promise I will not "sign up" with any organization advocating particular or class legislation. I believe the principle wrong and un-American and do feel that any representative must go to Congress unpledged and held to a "strict accountability" on his record of vote when any legislation, in its final form, is before him. I shall continue, if re-nominated and re-elected, to work with the Republican party, trying to make it better and of greater service to the people, and when we can not get a caucus of the party on any political issues, I expect to follow the leadership of the President.

I ask the support of all, and if you can not get out and support me in the primaries, get out anyway and support some good person, for "with citizenship goes responsibility," and good citizens work and vote to better their Government, and bad citizens do not.

Let my record, viewed as a whole, be your reason for voting for or against me.

I believe "one good term deserves another."

(Signed) JOHN D. CLARKE, Congressman.

Benjamin F. Sisson of Rootville is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Billings of Buffalo. A son, William De Shaw, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin De Shaw, Sunday morning. Rev. George W. ## CONGRESSMAN CLARKE

Constituents of the Hon. John D. Clarke, representative in congress from the Thirty-Fourth New York district, comprising the counties of Otsego, Delaware, Chenango and Broome, will read with interest and with satisfaction the announcement which appears in another column today, to the effect that he will be a candidate for re-nomination at the primaries next fall. Though his first term at Washington is but a little more than half over, he has shown such qualities of statesmanship and such clear comprehension of his duties and obligations alike to his own district and to the country as a whole, which in a larger sense he represents as have won for him the confidence, admiration and respect of all who have followed his career in the national legislative body.

Mr. Clarke, previous to his election, had attained distinction at the bar as a practicing attorney, and to this he added much experience as a farmer, dairyman and business man, all important qualifications for one who was to represent a district so largely industrial and agricultural as the Thirty-Fourth. Moreover, at least in his native county of Delaware, he was widely known as a man of excellent judgment, of genuine courage, of firm convictions, of sterling uprightness of character, of a sense of responsibility to the people as a whole, and of independence shown by his refusal to wear the collar of any organization actuated by merely personal interests. The past thirteen months have not only confirmed this faith at home, but have convinced his constituents throughout the district of the wisdom of their choice. Every pledge made by him previous to his election has faithfully been fulfilled, and in addition thereto he has shown in the councils of the nation such comprehension of the important problems of government and such firm adherence to the right as he sees it as are alike gratifying and unusual.

During the greater part of the past two decades this district has through its representatives at Washington retained distinction through its policy of an excellent initial choice and afterwards of retaining its representatives from term to term. The opportunity of continuing this practice is again presented, and there is little question that it will be embraced, so far as the primaries go, by the Republican party, a nomination by which is practically equi salient to an election.

TWO EXCELLENT SUGGESTIONS

Formation of County Health Association and Work Preventive of Tuberculosis Among Children Urged by Miss Short in Annual Report

That more systematic work for the prevention of tuberculosis among children with the establishment of a summer camp for the children who manifest symptoms of a tendency in that direction until such a time as there can be provided a sanatorium for them was one of the important suggestions made to the County Tuberculosis committee at its meeting recently in this city by Miss Anna V. Short, the executive secretary in her report for the year.

She called attention to the lack of school nurses except in the cities and to the fact that the cause for inferior school work on the part of many students is physical imperfections many of which can be remedied. The value to society of bringing the young generation to a high degree of physical fitness as is possible was emphasized and its importance as great as that of educational training suggested. Too little work along this line is being done in the opinion of Miss Short and many others who have made a study of the subject.

Suggestion was also made that the conditions are becoming favorable for the merging of the Tuberculosis committee into a County Health association, which would interest itself in all measures calculated to preserve the health of all residents of the county and support all well considered plans for such work.

Both suggestions will receive consideration on the part of the committee, though perhaps it will be difficult to secure funds with which to maintain the summer camp.

Certainly the health of the school children is receiving too little attention especially in the rural schools and any steps which will bring about more careful attention to conserving this important asset of society will receive the support of all thoughtful citizens.

Tribute to Howard Huntington.
The Los Angeles, Cal., Evening Herald of March 23, in its notice of the death and funeral of the late Howard Huntington, son of Henry H. Huntington, formerly of this city, pays the following fitting and well-deserved tribute to the memory of the deceased:
"In both his business and private life, Huntington was known to his friends as a quiet, unassuming, intensely democratic gentleman and he was esteemed by all who knew him. He lived a clean life and his high ideals as brought forth in his work were of comfort among his many friends. His friendship for platform men of the street railways with which he was connected, and their admiration in turn for his many qualities are also recalled by his old associates of both the Pacific Electric and Los Angeles railways."

Money Will Be Returned.
If the Milford resident who sent an anonymous communication to this office a few days since, was and his or her address to this office, the money enclosed will be returned.

DON'TS FOR INCOME PAYER

A Few Suggestions of Interest and Profit to Citizens Making State Returns.

This is the second of a series of three groups of "Don'ts" furnished by the State Tax commission to assist individuals in making out their state income tax returns. The third and last will appear in this paper tomorrow. This information is official. Clip this article for reference.

Exemptions.
Don't include in your gross income interest received upon bonds or other obligations of the United States, its possessions, New York State or any political subdivision thereof. Such income is exempt.

Don't forget to report or include as income compensation received as an employee of the State or any political subdivision thereof. This applies to school teachers, janitors of schools and all persons in the employ of the state, a city or country.

Don't forget that the personal exemptions allowed by the state are different from those allowed by the federal government, both as to amount and the method of determining. The status of the taxpayer on the last day of his taxable year determines the personal exemption for the federal tax, whereas the most favorable status at any time during the taxable year determines the exemption under the state tax.

Don't forget, if you are a minister, that the deductions under the state and federal laws are different. Under the state law, ministers must include in their returns the value of the parsonage and appurtenances (such as the use of automobile, barn, garage) if supplied by the church, whereas it is not necessary to include this under the federal law.

Insurance and Membership dues.
Don't include as income, amounts received under the workmen's compensation act. For example, if in the course of your duties you were injured and were unable to work for six weeks during which time you received from the State or insurance company $105, don't bother about it. The same applies to accident or health insurance.

Don't deduct premiums on insurance or household property or on the property occupied by you as your residence.
Don't overlook deducting from gross amounts paid to organized trade unions as membership and strike benefit dues. Such amounts are, in a sense, business expenses to the laboring man and are deductible. If you claim a deduction of this sort, show it under item 31. Don't confuse trade dues with amounts assessed for sick benefits or for a mortuary fund. Assessments of this kind are not classed for tax purposes as dues and therefore, are not deductible.

Don't deduct membership dues in a club or other society conducted for social purposes but you may deduct any government tax on these dues.

CARING FOR POOLERS' MILK

All Poolers Will Be Paid by Established Plan and Losses Equally Distributed—Cobleskill Milk Being Hauled by Truck to Cooperstown

LaFoy Shafer of Cobleskill was in the city early Monday morning on his way home from Cooperstown where he had been arranging for the receipt and proper credit to the owners of the pooled milk producers in the vicinity of Cobleskill which is being hauled to Cooperstown by truck and being made into butter at the Dalmatians League plant at that place. The milk formerly went to the Sheffield plant at Cobleskill, but that firm having failed to renew its contract with the League Co-operative association, the milk is being withheld and forwarded to Cooperstown the milk along the Chert Valley branch of poolers is being sent to Sharon Springs where it is being cared for.

Relative to the care of the poolers' milk generally a statement just issued by E. R. Eastman of the League News says:
Most of the poolers' milk is being taken care of in the regular way at milk plants. The small part that cannot be handled at some regular station is being kept at home and skimmed and the cream shipped to some plant belonging to the Co-operative Association. All poolers will be paid as usual by the pooling plan and any losses equally distributed.

A large amount of propaganda is being issued by leaders of the non-pooling element and by the dealers. All sorts of stories are in the air. The 67,000 producers in the Co-operative Association do not seem to be greatly disturbed by this propaganda. Regular and frequent local meetings are being held and daily information is being furnished to local officers of the Association so that every producer has full and correct information from his own association.

One of the good features of the present contest between the producers and the buyers of milk is that the consumers supply will not be interrupted. The only difference will be in some cases a change in the method by which the milk reaches the consumer. The chief fundamental principle of the Co-operative plan is more efficiency in the marketing of dairy products. This means a constant supply of high quality milk at reasonable prices to the consumer at all times and at the same time a high enough price to the farmer to cover the cost of production and keep him in business.

Divorce Action Heard.

WEST END AND THE PLAINS

Items Gathered by Star's Energetic Correspondent in Oneonta's Enterprising Suburb.

West End was the scene of two enjoyable social events last Friday night. Mrs. C. J. Jenks of 10 Murdock avenue entertained ten boys of the Booster class of the Elm Park Methodist church to a genuine old-fashioned popcorn social at her pleasant home. There was plenty of entertainment for the boys, and they had a jolly good time. They had an auto show of their own, and the prizes were awarded to John Hooks and Clarence Jester. They toasted marshmallows at the fireplace, had some music, ate some real good apples, and altogether put in a "regular" time, departing about mid-night after thanking Mrs. Jenks for her hospitality.

About 27 friends of Mrs. Howard Fay made her a surprise party at her home, 323 Chestnut street, the occasion being her birthday. Five hundred was in vogue during the early hours of the evening, and later delicious refreshments, brought along by the guests, were served. Emilie Melhorn, in behalf of the gathering, presented Mrs. Fay with a card table, for which she expressed her sincere appreciation. The party broke up in the small hours of the morning after a very enjoyable time, dangers having whittled away the last hours.

Recent Removals.

William Warner, who recently purchased of Mrs. George Aylsworth the desirable bungalow at 447 Chestnut street is moving in. Mr. and Mrs. S. Barr, who previously rented the place, have moved to Ford avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright Kilpatrick, on April 1, moved to the house on Telford street formerly occupied by Ernest Collier. Mr. Collier has moved to a residence on Chestnut street he recently purchased.

The dressmaking class of the Plains Home bureau will hold an all-day meeting at the Plains church on Thursday. Each member please bring sewing supplies and also contrasting material for practice work. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

Attend Evangelistic Services.

Several auto-loads of members of the Elm Park and Plains Methodist churches motored to Otsego Sunday night, where they attended the closing meeting of the Van Horne evangelistic services which have been conducted in the city of Otsego.

Health Insurance

We ordinarily do not associate ice cream with insurance. The two would seem to be entirely dissimilar, in every respect. Yet it is possible to make ice cream so pure and so chockfull of all natural food elements that frequent use of it makes a stronger, healthier, more robust constitution. Many physicians prescribe ice cream for patients who can eat little else and scores of hospitals use it as a regular article of diet for the sick.

LOCAL MENTION.

—Both the public schools and the Normal will close on Friday for the Easter vacation and will reopen on Tuesday, April 18.

—O. B. Grosfant has removed from 41 Center street to the first floor apartment in the house of L. E. Wilber at 61 Center street.

—A. G. Dittmore, division car foreman of the D. & H. company, has purchased the William Warner property at 132 Chestnut street and has taken possession.

—There was a satisfactory attendance at the baby clinic held yesterday at the community house. Dr. Ray D. Chapman, assisted by Miss Robertson, examined the infants.

—H. V. Farrell, income tax auditor from the office of the state income bureau at Utica, will be at the Chamber of Commerce offices today and until April 15. Since last in the city, Mr. Farrell has been in various towns in Delaware county and comes here from Walton, where he has been since March 31.

—Training classes in community singing and recreation work under the auspices of the Farm Bureau, will be held in Oneonta at Municipal hall this morning and afternoon. The morning session begins at 9:30, and the afternoon session at half past one o'clock. All who are interested are earnestly invited to attend.

—There was a good attendance yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. O. C. McCrum, who had charge of the program, read an interesting paper on "Historical and Present Day Armenia," and Mrs. C. G. Colburn read a poem having that country for its theme. Refreshments were served, Mrs. Luther Zeile and Miss Elizabeth Blakely being the hostesses.

NO TRAIN CREWS LAID OFF

D. & H. is Moving Coal Stored at Mines—Officials Hope no Men will be Laid Off.

No train crews have been laid off yet because of the coal miners' strike, it was stated Monday at the local D. & H. offices. The company has a large stock of coal piled at its mines and the crews are engaged now in moving that stock. There are also large stocks at Delanson and at other points which can be moved if necessary to other places where needed.

It was stated that the time might come, if the strike continued, when it would be necessary to lay off some crews or put them on part time. A large part of the business of the D. & H. consists in moving coal and if there comes a time when there is no coal to move or when the coal on hand cannot be moved for some reason, it will be necessary to lay off men. That condition has not arisen yet, however, and D. & H. officials are hoping that it will not.

Meetings Today.

$13,151 FOR BENEVOLENCES

SUBSTANTIAL CONTRIBUTIONS OF FIRST METHODIST CHURCH OF ONEONTA.

Some interesting figures from the Annual Report of Rev. Dr. B. M. Johns of the First Methodist Church—Financial Report Unequalled in History of Church—His Return Anticipated and Expected.

Rev. Dr. B. M. Johns, pastor of the First Methodist church who leaves this evening for Endicott to remain until Monday in attendance at the annual session of the Wyoming conference, made a summarized report of the activities of the church at a meeting of the official board of his church Monday. The report being one that evinced keen satisfaction among the official, it disclosing that the church has contributed during the year ending March 31, to the various benevolences of the church, both here and abroad the handsome sum of $13,151.35 while there was contributed during the same year $11,200 for the current expenses of the local church.

During this period the plate offerings at the Sunday services totaled $1,750.56, which sum alone is $1,000 in excess of the corresponding figures the first year of Dr. Johns' pastorate. In addition to the contributions mentioned above there have been substantial additions to the church fund which now totals $7,902.23. This latter sum has come largely from the Tithe's association and the Ladies aid society, no effort being made to secure any substantial sum from the church members.

Last year the Tithe's association with one hundred members had a combined fund for church work of $9,201. The association has entered upon a campaign for 300 members and the number has already been increased to 150 and the officers are anticipating at least $13,000 during the present conference year. Another of the church organizations in which Pastor Johns takes equal and justifiable pride, is the Young Women's Foreign Missionary society, which during the year just closed has raised $450 for the work and with a modest membership. The attendance at the Sunday school is now averaging about 500 each Sunday, a number fully 75 in excess of the corresponding time a year since.

The budget has been increased materially for the coming year, but with an equally generous response on the part of those members of the church and congregation, who have been seen at the altar, it is believed that the work outlined will be equally well sustained during the present year. This should be very easy as the church has a membership of 913 resident and 194 non-resident. During the past year the church has lost by death 22 resident members, and gained 24 by letter and 53 by profession of faith.

Dr. Johns departs for conference with a report the equal of which the church has never before made. His friends are confident that with the support accorded him no one will be able to secure his consent, or the approval of the church authorities, to carry to his wishes, to his transfer to accept any of the several proposals that have been made to him, and with some effort to have them appear attractive. His loyalty to the local church doubtless explains to no small degree the interest and loyalty of the church membership.

DELL KOHN BLOCK SOLD

Joseph Bianca Purchases Building at 121-123 Main Street—Will Move his Fruit and Grocery Store to That Location.

The business block at 121-123 Main street, occupied by Lamont's cafe and the restaurant of Dr. Kohn & Wicks, has been purchased from the estate of the late Dell Kohn, by Joseph Bianca, it was announced Monday by Arthur L. Seybold, through whom the sale was made.

Mr. Bianca took possession on April 1, and on May 1 he will occupy the store now leased by Mr. Lamont as a grocery and fruit store, and will transfer his stock of goods from the building he now occupies on Fairview street, just off Main. The interior of the store will be suitably altered for his use.

The block to which Mr. Bianca now secures the title is a substantial three story structure with living apartments on the two upper floors. For years the late Dell Kohn conducted a cafe from the store now occupied by Mr. Lamont and W. S. Winney formerly conducted the restaurant in the other side. The building has been long known as the Dell Kohn block.

Start Excavating for New Theatre.

Excavating for the business block and theatre which Marie Theatre, Inc., is to erect on the corner of Main street and Ford avenue, was started yesterday and before long the steam shovel had dug a hole of considerable size. The fact that a sufficient number of teams and dump wagons were not available held up the work somewhat but more teams are expected to be on the job today and the work will progress faster. The steam shovel is now doing a fine job of clearing the ground and a crowd of sightseers about the place throughout the day.

EVENT OF A LIFETIME

Tour of the World on Elks' Special Train Should Not Be Missed

RECORD CROWD TONIGHT

Special Correspondent of The Star Accompanies Excursionists to California, Hawaii and Treasure Island and Notes Some of the Interest Features of the Trip—Members of Company G, Masonic Lodge, City Firemen and Veteran Firemen to Be Dinner Guests of Elks Tonight—Event One of Stellar Magnitude in Amusement Features.

Some may have thought that the advance notices of the Elks' fair and Trip Around the World being stored there nightly were written by some verbose publicity man seeking to extort the consent of some mediocre. Those, however, who have visited the new building and take the trip realize that the advance stories were nothing more than an earnest effort to present a fairly accurate conception of the size and its many diversified features. Certain it is that it is marvelous that within the big building so much of realism has been gathered and so much that will interest and repay the tourist.

Last evening's attendance was even larger than on the opening night and the trip around the world was the most popular feature. The Elks' club, with visitors from early evening until the dancing music drew away many of the younger set to while away a few hours on the dance floor. It was nearly 11 o'clock, however, before the crowd had entered with the dancing. It was a merry throng that journeyed about and no end of amusement was provided for them.

The reception hall of the Elks' home has been transformed into a veritable railroad station—complete in every respect for the ticket journey. The train being directed by the information bureau, the rack of time tables and the cigar counter and newsstand. Even the gun and welding machines are not lacking. There is a personnel sufficiently large to operate the Grand Central station, composed of the following: Ticket agent, Frank A. Horne; ticket agent, W. E. Crockett; information bureau, Chester A. Klotz; newsroom, Alfred O. Ingerham; gate-man, George S. Slade; train announcer, Jerry Wilson.

Having purchased a ticket and secured information as to the trip, the stentorian tones, one steps upon a well designed Pullman with all accessories, in charge of Paul Baker as conductor, with Charles Finigan and George Parks as porters, and following the admonition "Do not put the porters to the test," but quickly changed by the addition of "More than 10 cents," is seated. It requires but a moment of time owing to the speed at which the B. P. O. E. Special is run before California is announced and one steps off in the Land of Flowers and Sunshine.

In California.

T. S. Wyckoff at once becomes the personal guide of the tourist and with a spell about California that would have the most ardent boomer could possibly capture the heart of the visitor. The visitor is enchanted with the charms of the state. He sees the orange groves of the Imperial valley and a little beyond the Yosemite Valley with all its charms and still later the famous groves of Redwood, the big trees which are considered the old-st. living things. Fruits, flowers and trees are abundant. Visitors need not wonder long for quickly one discerns that he is having a glimpse of the Hollywood colony, beholding in person a half dozen famous movie stars. Here one may purchase choice California fruit and flowers—the latter fresh cut from Wyckoff's.

Assisting Mr. Wyckoff in entertaining the visitors while in California are the Misses Dorothy Simmel, Jane Merritt, Ann Kraft and Daisy Seaton. Miss John Sait, Mrs. Ralph Henderson, Mrs. Wyckoff and Mr. Henderson.

Land of Hula-Hula Girls.

After a short sail of a few hundred miles covered in a few hours, one is landed in Hawaii, where a typical scene is presented with the giant volcanoes seen in the distance. Aside from the charms of the island and those of the Hula-Hula girls who abound, clad in typical Hawaiian costume, there is a display of a fine and choice collection of pretty silk lingerie, embracing nightgowns, petticoats, chemises, etc., with some fine specimens of Philippine underwear and various baby garments, all of which are being offered at the ridiculously low prices usually given to tourists.

If you are not especially interested in lingerie—and who is not—ou can purchase here a guitar or a ukulele.

FOR DISCUSSION OF ZONING

Public Meeting Announced for April 17 at Municipal Hall—Ernest P. Goodrich of New York Principal Speaker.

A public meeting and discussion of Zoning with an explanatory address on the protection to real estate afforded by municipal zoning ordinances, has been announced as the first of the Chamber of Commerce forum meetings for this season by Dr. David H. Miller, who has been appointed chairman of the Forum committee by President Roscoe C. Biggs.

Monday evening, April 17, is the date and Municipal hall the place selected for the first forum meeting. Because of the wide-spread interest in zoning, a subject which has been a current issue during the past six years in many municipalities, scores of which have adopted zoning ordinances, it is expected that Municipal hall will be taxed to its capacity on that evening by citizens interested in securing first-hand information on the topic. In order to permit every citizen desirous of attending to keep that date open, the Chamber's Forum committee is making an early announcement of the meeting.

Ernest P. Goodrich, vice president of the Technical Advisory corporation of New York City, is the speaker selected for the first forum meeting on zoning by the Chamber of Commerce Zoning committee of which P. H. Chambers is chairman. It is expected that Mr. Goodrich will confer earlier in the day with officials of the city and the Chamber of Commerce regarding zoning and city planning work his organization could undertake, provided public opinion later favored such step.

Mr. Goodrich was formerly a civil engineer in the Navy, and later chief engineer of the Bush Terminal Company of New York city. He is a prominent member of the American Society of Civil Engineers and has been engaged as consultant by many municipalities and various enterprises. His firm is one of the largest in the East engaged in consulting engineering and specializing in city planning work.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce Forum Committee, which will have charge of discussion meetings held throughout the year, are in addition to Chairman Miller: A. L. Bergen, Rev. L. C. Denney, C. H. Dorr, H. C. Gelman, W. M. Goldsmith, W. A. Holley, A. O. Ingerham, A. C. Lange, Lewis F. Rice, and B. B. Stebbins.

C.T.R. ELECTS OFFICERS

Former Board of Directors Chosen for Ensuing Year—Three Are One-oum—Satisfactory Business Conditions.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Computing-Tabulating-Recording company, held yesterday afternoon at the offices of the company, 50 Broad street, New York city, the entire former board of directors were re-elected, save that Ellis H. Booth, vice president of the Guaranty Trust company, was named to succeed the late John B. Stanchfield. The entire board, which consists of fifteen members, is as follows: George W. Fairchild, Drury W. Cooper, Charles R. Flint, A. Ward Ford, Oscar L. Gubelman, Samuel Hastings, John W. Horbert, Robert L. Houston, Joseph B. Rogers, Charles Smith, Christopher J. Smith, Thomas J. Watson, George I. Wilber, Rollin S. Woodruff and Ellis H. Booth.

The many stockholders who reside in Oneonta and vicinity will be gratified to know that they continue to have three local representatives among the directors—Hon. George W. Fairchild, who is chairman of the board, Hon. Charles Smith and George I. Wilber. Mr. Fairchild also heads the executive and finance committee and is also vice president of the company. By these competent business men their interests are certain to be looked after.

As was recently noted in these columns, the financial condition of the company is very satisfactory, the annual report showing a substantial surplus over the regular dividends and with a steadily increasing business following the general depression in which the company to only a moderate extent shared.

The stock was quoted in the New York exchange on Monday at $72 per share, being the highest figure in the company's history. Officers for the ensuing year will be named at an early meeting of the directors.

Attended Burial Funeral.

The following members of the Oneonta Bar association were in Cherry Valley yesterday in attendance at the funeral of the late Judge James V. Barnum: Surrogate S. L. Huntington, City Attorney George L. Gibbs, City Clerk Sheldon H. Close, County Attorney Dennis J. Kilkenny, Hon. George L. Boakes, Henry D. McLaury and Lincoln L. Kellogg.

TRUCK LINE TO SIDNEY

Right to Operate Within City Limits Requested of Common Council—Insurance of City Funds Against Robbery or Burglary Authorized—No Funds for More Street Lights Reported Mayor Miller.

Consent of the city for the operation of a truck line within the city limits, said truck line to be between Sidney and Oneonta and to make two trips each way daily was asked of in the communication from the Unadilla Tie company of which M. J. Ward is the responsible head was presented at the regular meeting of the common council held last night. The letter stated that the company has two trucks of 2 and 2½ tons capacity respectively which it plans to operate and the authorized states that it is the intention to serve the farmers largely by drawing their produce from the farm and feed, cement and materials from the city and villages to the farmers. Not being familiar with the provisions of the law, Mayor Miller referred the request to City Attorney Gibbs for his opinion as to the rights and powers of the city.

Upon the suggestion of the City Chamberlain Boardman, the sum of $66.44 was appropriated for the purchase of insurance through U. A. Ferguson of an insurance policy covering the funds in the hands of the city against loss from robbery or burglary in amounts varying from $1,000 to $8,000 according to the time of year and the nature of the crime should any of the funds be stolen. The policy authorized covers for a three-year period and it was recommended by Chamberlain Boardman of the finance committee. There were no votes in opposition.

Action by the board of public works rejecting the bid for the construction of concrete walks in the city during 1922 as too high and deciding to construct all walks under the supervision of the department was ratified and approved, it appearing the wise course.

Mr. France of the committee on lights reported in favor of placing a street light on Center street midway between Church and West streets. Mayor Miller expressed a doubt of there being sufficient funds in the budget for lighting to meet the expenses of an additional light and action was deferred pending an investigation of the question.

Other minor matters were discussed but no action taken.

It is the organic iron in your blood that takes up oxygen from your lungs. This oxygenated organic iron unites with your deoxygenated blood, like it is absorbed into your blood, like fire emits with coal or wood, and by so doing it creates tremendous power and energy. Without organic iron in your blood your food merely passes through your body without doing you any good. Organic iron, like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples may be had from any druggist under the name of "Nuxated Iron". Over four million people are using Nuxated Iron annually, their experience proving that it increases the strength and endurance of the weak, nervous, run-down people. In many cases, in two weeks' time. If you want that virile force, that stamina and strength so necessary to great success in practically every undertaking in life, you owe it to yourself to try Nuxated Iron today.

PURITY PROCESS BY RADIO

Prof. Paul Heath, inventor of Health-Lized Method of Making Dairy Products Delivers Address Tuesday Evening—Purity Ice Cream Sole Owner of Rights Here.

Of interest to local radio fans is the announcement that in the broadcast messages announced for the week, Professor Paul Heath, noted food scientist, would deliver an address at 7:30 Tuesday evening on the topic of "Food Sanitation." Professor Heath is the inventor of the process of making dairy foods such as ice cream, butter, etc., in an atmosphere of absolute sterility. This process is described as being the only known method of preserving absolutely the vitamin elements in the food, and was perfected by Professor Heath after several years of experiment and research.

Recently on a trip through New York state Professor Heath delivered an address before the convention of the Purity Ice Cream employees at Malone, N. Y., following which he visited each of the plants of the company both in Canada and the United States.

At that time he disposed of the sole rights to manufacture ice cream under his patents to the Purity Ice Cream plants which are now equipped with the necessary machinery for exercising the privilege. Two hundred manufacturers of dairy products throughout the United States and Canada use the Health-Lized method of manufacture which is said to make the finished product many times purer than the air we breathe.

WYOMING M. E. CONFERENCE

OPENS THIS MORNING AT M. E. CHURCH IN ENIDCOTT.

Anniversary Services Last Evening—Candidates Examined—Pre-Conference Gossip and Probable Changes Next Year—Conference May be in Norwich.

(Special to The Star.)

Binghamton, April 4. — Oneonta and the churches of the Oneonta district of the Wyoming conference, are expected to play an important part in the 71st annual session of the Wyoming conference, which opened in the Methodist church at Enidcott today with the examination of candidates for the ministry.

The Rev. James A. Hensley, D. D., superintendent of the Oneonta district, and most of the ministers of the district arrived here today, but some of them will not be here until tomorrow as the conference proper does not open until 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Rev. R. E. Austin of Edmeston took part in the celebration of the anniversary of the institution of regular work in rural communities which was observed tonight with Rev. Clinton B. Henry, of the Worcester-Denver charge, in the chair. Rev. S. S. Robbins of McClure, also took an important part in the celebration.

Dr. L. C. Mordock of Philadelphia, formerly of the Oneonta district, was also a participant in the meeting. The principal address was given by Dr. Paul Voge of Philadelphia, and was on "The Progress of Rural Church Work." The point of greatest interest to Oneonta district in connection with this session of the conference is the unofficial rumor that the 1923 session is to be held in Norwich. Owing to the fact that the meetings during the last several years have been held in the Wyoming end of the conference, it was reported here tonight that the 1923 session is to be held in Norwich in the Oneonta district. It was said unofficially that an invitation from that city will receive serious consideration.

The conference last met in the Oneonta district in 1917, from April 11 to 16, when it met at Cooperstown at the time the United States was about to enter the war.

Among the gossip of the early arrivals at the conference, was that District Superintendent Hensley is said to be supporting a movement to secure the promotion of Rev. George Russell of Norwich to a district superintendency. It is also believed that a minister from the Oneonta district is to be sent to the pastorate of the Ogden church, which is in Port Dickinson. Rev. Herbert B. Cook, native of Middlefield and well-known throughout the Oneonta district, has been acting as pastor of this church. It is understood that he is to resume his retired relation.

Another change that it is said will be considered is the placing of Chenango Forks, which is now in the southwest corner of the Oneonta district, in the Binghamton district, as it is claimed that due to geographical location the affairs of that village can best be administered by the superintendent of the Binghamton district. Whether the change will be made cannot be said. The present pastor there is Rev. Edgar D. Cook, formerly of Mt. Vernon-Laurens.

Still another change reported to be under consideration is that of the Rev. Frank W. Young, of Norwich, who is said to be slated to succeed Rev. G. M. Bell as pastor at Kingston, Pa., where a training seminary is located. It is reported that Mr. Bell is the choice for superintendent in either the Wilkes-Barre or Scranton districts.

Among those who took their yearly examination today under the direction of the Wyoming Conference board of examiners were the Rev. Egbert Van Horne of Sidney, a well-known evangelist; Rev. Luke W. Hovey of North Sanford; Rev. Arthur Landmesser of Coventry; Rev. E. A. Silvernail of East Worcester; Rev. Jesse L. Wilson of Hannuville; Rev. William L. Wood of Sherburne. Among the pastors on the board of examiners were the Rev. Berthier W. Fox of Connerstown, Rev. Clinton B. Henry of Worcester, and Rev. Floyd Lesh of Bainbridge.

WOMAN'S CLUB ELECTION

Mrs. Julian C. Smith Chosen to Head Organization for Ensuing Year.

At the annual meeting of the Oneonta Woman's club, held last evening in the club rooms on Chestnut street, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President—Mrs. Julian C. Smith.
Vice Pres.—Mrs. H. W. Fluhrer.
Rec. Sec.—Mrs. Lee D. VanWoert.
Cor. Sec.—Mrs. A. E. Fittelle.
Treasurer—Mrs. Walter S. Whipple.
Directors, two years—Mrs. W. H. Lynch, Mrs. Edward E. Ford.

The report of the treasurer showed the finances of the club in a fine condition, with a substantial balance in the treasury.

At the meeting six new members were elected: Miss Dorothy Shufelt, Miss Bessie R. Cowan, Mrs. John Lyon, Mrs. M. F. Leamy, Miss Marie Swanson and Miss Daisy Serven.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Esther Parkhurst, a non-resident member of the club, gave an interesting talk on the old city of Santa Fe, and at the conclusion of her address presented a fine picture of "The Old Santa Fe Trail," the work of her son, T. Harmon Parkhurst, a widely known artistic photographer, whose pictures have received highest commendation as notable specimens of the photographic art. A collection of these pictures by Mr. Parkhurst was also shown and much admired. These pictures will be on exhibition in the club rooms this afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. At the conclusion of the meeting a rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Parkhurst for her address, and to her son for the picture, which was his gift to the organization.

and who would not covet one or the other after listening to entrancing music dispensed so liberally for all visitors. Or if you prefer you can be supplied with Hawaiian records of the selections rendered. All will wish to try the fishpond arranged especially for Elk tourists.

Dr. David H. Mills is in charge with the capable assistance of Mrs. Mills and the following: Mrs. N. W. Getman, Mrs. Lester Lang, Mrs. Jerry Wilson, Mrs. Harold Ford, Miss Carolyn Steadman, Philip Strong, Stuart Keenan and Edward Rueker.

Arrival at Treasure Island.

Another short ocean voyage brings our party to Treasure Island, where presides a twentieth century Captain Kidd in the person of Harry C. Bard who, attired as a pirate, welcomes all visitors and instead of robbing you of your gold dispenses souvenir coins of the fair at a nominal fee which celebrate the growth of Lodge 1312, which in eight years has increased from 48 members to 1,000. Here is displayed the good ship "Hispanola," a typical pirate ship designed and painted by Lou Sherwood of Unadilla whose skill with the brush is in evidence throughout the entire trip.

One may delve in the treasure chests of Captain Kidd for such treasures as he may find at a nominal fee or purchase one of the souvenirs. Captain Kidd professes to be the only pirate seen on the trip, though some visitors are inclined to contradict this claim. Captain Kidd is assisted at Treasure Island by Elmer D. Townsend and Clyde E. Canfield.

Communication by wireless by The Star's special correspondent with the excursionists was broken by some thoughtless broadcaster after the above had been received and the story of the experiences of the excursionists will be continued in a later issue.

Record Crowd Tonight.

This evening a record crowd is expected as members of the following organizations are to be entertained at dinner at the station restaurant on the second floor of the terminal building as guests of Lodge 1312: Company G, Company G band, Oneonta Lodge, No. 466, F. & A. M., City Firemen and the Veteran Firemen. There will be special talent for the evening cabaret performance in Cuba.

SAVE-install ARCOLA this month - NOW

TODAY, do this one little thing that costs nothing. Pick up the telephone, call your Steamfitter or Plumber and say: "What is the price of ARCOLA with an American Radiator in each room in my house, installed NOW?"

Remember to say, "installed NOW." The NOW is important. The diagram at the top of the page shows why.

The crowd waits until it is cold in the Fall before installing heating equipment; then everybody wants his ARCOLA installed at the same time. You save yourself time, worry and money if you order in the Spring. ARCOLA costs less this month, NOW, than ever before in its history.

Your Steamfitter is waiting for that Telephone Call

Don't hesitate for fear of wasting your Steamfitter's time. He has much more time NOW than he will have next Fall when the rush season starts in. He is waiting for your telephone call; waiting to show you these three great ARCOLA advantages:

1. ARCOLA, installed in one room, is connected by pipes to an American Radiator in every other room. No more cold rooms; no spotty heat.

2. ARCOLA gives the same healthful radiator warmth that florists have in their greenhouses. Dry hot air is bad for flowers and families too.

3. ARCOLA does pay for itself in the fuel it saves. Thousands of owners have proved it.

An American Radiator like this stands in every room, connected with ARCOLA. ARCOLA can heat the kitchen tank, too, supplying hot water for family use.

FREE A beautiful ARCOLA book will be mailed to you if you will send your name to the address above; and remember—your Steamfitter's estimate costs you nothing. Make that telephone call today, NOW.
